Jane Sullivan holds a Masters of Music degree in Vocal Performance and Vocal Pedagogy from Roosevelt University. She has 13 years of teaching experience and has been a member of the voice faculty at Sherwood Conservatory of Music for the last 10 years. She is currently a member of the supplementary chorus for the Lyric Opera of Chicago and will be singing in the chorus for their upcoming productions of Carmen and A Midsummer's Marriage. Jane has also sung as a soloist in a number of Bach and Beyond Concerts and spent time touring Wisconsin and Northern Illinois with Opera for the Young.

In addition to classical music, Jane also likes to sing and perform more popular music and musical theater. She recently gave her debut Cabaret performance at Davenport's in Wicker Park, singing the songs of Stephen Sondheim. She hopes to perform again there in the near future. Jane cantors regularly at a number of churches and has done cantor training as well as some choir conducting. She is passionate about singing and believes strongly that everyone can sing and has a unique voice.

This workshop will teach the following:

- ❖ How your voice actually works
- ❖ Exercises to help you develop your voice so you can count on it when you need it.
- ❖ How to breathe properly so you can make it through those long phrases!
- ❖ How to expand your vocal range
- ❖ How to stop your voice from cracking and getting hoarse
- ❖ How to take care of your voice for ultimate performance
- ❖ How to improve your intonation and tone quality
- ❖ How to sing louder without pushing your voice
- ❖ The proper way to support your sound

Join us for a fun and informative evening.
No previous singing experience is necessary and everyone is welcome!
